1. Dr. Nishtha Kaushiki
2. Dr. Sudheer Singh
3. Dr. Vikas Rathee
4. Dr. Ashwani Kumar
5. Dr. Bawa Singh (OIC)

Agenda of the meeting

- To discuss the proposal of new Centre proposed by Dr. Ashwani Kumar (Centre for History and Archaeology) and Dr. Sudheer Singh Verma –The Centre for Political Studies:

Resolution:

- The proposal was basically for the growth of the Centre which is presently running two parallel master programmes i.e., Political Science and History. Both are different subjects with different orientations. The proposal is neither demanded extra infrastructure nor personnel. It was to provide better opportunities to the concerned students. (Dr. Ashwani Kumar)
- With reference to the notification no. 14, for the establishment of academic and administrative committees in different centres of CUPB(CUPB/CC/15/notification/14 dated 23.07.15) in that point 2(1) of the functions given mandate to decide the thrust areas of the Centre for teaching and research and the plan the various programme. Presently is centre is mixed with the three disciplines (Political Science, History and Area Studies). Keeping view of the mixed disciplines, the centre is offering two MAs and Ph.D. So, the workload has increased for per faculty that has been effecting teaching and research. That's why I have supported the proposal for separating the Centre. (Dr. Sudheer Singh Verma)
- Keeping in mind the agenda as out of purview of the AAC, lack of teaching faculties and infrastructure, it is resolved that the Centre is not willing to propose the new Centre at point of time. (Dr. Bawa Singh, Dr. Nishtha Kaushiki, Dr. Vikas Rathee)

- Proposal for a new center is outside the purview of AAC as per the CUPB/CC/15/notification/14 dated 23.07.15. Proposal of a new Centre has not been put up by EC/AC/CA. (Dr. Nishtha Kaushiki)
- The university does not have the requisite infrastructure personnel or attitude/interest for this proposal to be considered seriously at this time, I really would consider such a proposal only when it comes via VC/Administration. (Dr. Vikas Rathee)
- Since Dr. Bawa Singh would be proceeding on Refresher Course from 22-6-17 and would be rejoining on 13-7-17 and the undersigned of the Centre, it is informed that I would be ~~undersigned would be~~ on EL 5-7-17. It would not be possible to hold AAC on first Wednesday of July (05-7-17). The next meeting can be decided on urgent issues and with due permission of Dean(SGR) (Dr. Nishtha Kaushiki)
- This above point is out of agenda for called AAC Meeting on 20/6/2017. The above point has expressed that the acting OIC will be on leave that's why she has proposed the different date for the AAC meeting. But when other senior most faculty will be on charge of the OIC of the Centre may call the meeting, if it seems the above expressed views of the faculty. I think this point is not be discussed. (Dr. Sudheer Singh Verma)
