Guidelines for Financial Assistance under Travel Grant

1. Short Title, Application and Commencement

1.1 These guidelines may be called the CUP Guidelines for Financial Assistance under Travel Grant Scheme, 2022.

1.2 These guidelines shall apply to all eligible teachers, administrative officers and research scholars.

1.3 These guidelines lay down the minimum norms for attending national and international conferences/seminars/symposia/workshops etc.

1.4 These guidelines shall come into force from the date of its approval in the Executive Council of the university.

2. Definitions

In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, or otherwise provided terms shall have the following meaning:

2.1 University: Central University of Punjab (CUP).

2.2. Travel Grant: Travel grant means financial assistance to support the short-term travel, accommodation and registration expenses associated with attending a specific conference/ seminar/ symposia/ workshop etc.

2.3 International Travel: International travel means visiting another country from India by a teacher, administrative officer and research scholar for attending a specific conference/seminar/symposia/workshop etc.

2.4 Travel within India: It means travel by a teacher, administrative officer and research scholar for attending a specific conference/seminar/symposia/workshop etc. within the territorial limit of India.

2.5 Financial Year: The financial year means the period from 1st April of a year to the 31st March of next year.

3. Aims and Objectives

Since travelling is an excellent opportunity to share knowledge and research ideas, to network and to renew professional acquaintances, the Central University of Punjab aims to promote its teachers, administrative officers and research scholars to travel to national and international venues to present research papers, deliver talks/lectures, participate in seminars, symposia, workshops and training programmes to gain exposure to the academic systems and best practices.
