Batch: 2025

Department of English

School of Languages, Literature and Culture

Graduate Attributes

Graduates pursuing PhD in English at the Department of English will develop the following attributes: ● Creative, analytical, interpretive, reflective and problem-solving skills

- Acceptance and engagement with diversity
- Academic integrity and ethically-based research skills
- Broadening of outlook, enhancement of sensibility and development of aesthetic and intellectual faculties.
- Research skills in language and literature
- Be conceptually conversant with research methodology in language and literature studies and research ethics
- Develop ability to aesthetically appreciate and critically analyse the literary and cultural texts within a specific historical, geographical, and cultural context

Course Title: Research Methodology

Course Code: ENG.701

Total Hours: 45

Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1: Evaluate how research is conducted.

CLO 2: Critically evaluate current research and propose possible alternate directions for further work

CLO 3: Develop hypotheses and methodology for research

CLO 4: Analyse complex research issues in order to communicate their scientific results clearly for peer review.

CLO 5: Correlate the basic statistics involved in data presentation, critical review of literature and assessing the research trends.

CLO 6: Document research results.

Course Contents:

Course Title: Teaching Assistantship

Course Code: ENG.752

Total Hours: 30

Learning Outcome:

At the end of this skill development course, the scholars shall be able to

(1) familiarise themselves with the pedagogical practices of effective classroom delivery and knowledge evaluation system

(2) manage large and small classes using appropriate pedagogical techniques for different types of content

Activities and Evaluation:

- The scholars shall attend Master degree classes of his/her supervisor to observe the various transaction modes that the supervisor follows in the classroom delivery or transaction process one period per week.
- The scholars shall be assigned one period per week under the direct supervision of his/her supervisor to teach the Master degree students adopting appropriate teaching strategy(s).
- The scholars shall be involved in the examination and evaluation system of the Master degree students such as preparation of questions, conduct of examination and preparation of results under the direction of the supervisor.
- At the end of the semester, the supervisor shall conduct an examination of teaching skills learned by the scholar as per the following

Evaluation criteria:

- The scholars shall be given a topic relevant to the Master degree course of the current semester as his/her specialisation to prepare lessons and deliver in the classroom before the master degree students for one hour (45 minutes teaching + 15 minutes interaction).
- The scholars shall be evaluated for a total of 50 marks comprising content knowledge (10 marks), explanation and demonstration skills (10 marks), communication skills (10 marks), teaching techniques employed (10 marks), and classroom interactions (10).

Course Title: Curriculum, Pedagogy and Evaluation

Course Code: UNI.753

Total Hours: 15

Course Learning Outcomes:

After completion of the course, scholars shall be able to:

- analyse the principles and bases of curriculum design and development
- examine the processes involved in curriculum development
- develop the skills of adopting innovative pedagogies and conducting students' assessment
- develop a curriculum of a specific course/programme

Course Content:

Unit I Bases and Principles of Curriculum 4 hours 1. Curriculum: Concept and Principles of Curriculum Development, Foundations of Curriculum Development.
2. Types of Curriculum Designs- Subject-centered, learner-centred, experience-centred and core curriculum. Designing local, national, regional and global-specific curricula. Choice-Based Credit System and its Implementation.

Unit II Curriculum Development 4 hours 1. Process of Curriculum Development: Formulation of graduate attributes, course/learning outcomes, content selection, organisation of content and learning experiences, transaction process.
2. Comparison among Interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary and trans-disciplinary approaches to curriculum.

Unit III Curriculum and Pedagogy 3 hours 1. Conceptual understanding of Pedagogy.
2. Pedagogies: Peeragogy, Cybergogy and Heutagogy with special emphasis on Blended learning, Flipped learning, Dialogue, cooperative and collaborative learning
3. Three e-techniques: Moodle, Edmodo, Google Classroom

Unit IV Learners' Assessment 4 hours 1. Assessment Preparation: Concept, purpose, and principles of preparing objective and subjective questions.
2. Conducting Assessment: Modes of conducting assessment – offline and online; use of ICT in conducting assessments.
3. Evaluation: Formative and Summative assessments, Outcome-based assessment, and scoring criteria.

Transaction Mode:

Lecture, dialogue, peer group discussion, workshop

Evaluation criteria:

There shall be an end-term evaluation of the course for 50 marks for a duration of 2 hours. The course coordinator shall conduct the evaluation.
